FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City To Celebrate 85th Anniversary of Musicians Union Local 369

City Council Also To Recognize Compassionate Cities Award Winners

The Las Vegas City Council will celebrate the 85th Anniversary of Musicians Local 369 at the Wednesday, Oct. 19, City Council meeting that will begin at 9 a.m. in City Hall council chambers, located at 495 S. Main St.

Councilman Bob Coffin will recognize the group of local musicians who have provided the soundtrack to fabulous Las Vegas over the years. The members of the union, a part of the American Federation of Musicians, have a long history of providing world-class entertainment in Las Vegas.

Also, Councilman Steven D. Ross will recognize the winners of the Compassionate Cities Awards. Winners are chosen by members of the Mayor's Faith Initiative in the categories of:

- Health and Human Services
- Natural and Built Environment
- Arts and Culture
- Education
- Economy
- Compassionate Hero

In addition, Councilman Bob Beers will recognize the Lights On Afterschool Program. The program focuses on efforts like Safekey that provide needed services to students and families when children are not in school. While the city does not have direct control over education, the city is doing its part to support students and enhance their learning outside the traditional classroom.

Finally, the City Council will also recognize the Employee of the Month for October.
